You should start every Current Affairs tutorial with CBBC Newsround. It is vitally important students learn to watch the news and understand what is going on in the world around them. It is unlikely that they are all doing this consistently at home.

Newsround can be accessed here: https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/news/watch_newsround

Once completed, you should share the link of the article for that week with students and read the article as a control the game or teacher reading. Articles are from a range of sources to encourage students to read widely and to engage with different types of texts confidently.

Students should then complete the sheet detailing what they have just read.
